Thank You

To: John Wise for painting the new lines in our parking lot. He borrowed the equipment from work and provided the labor. They look great.

To: Lisa and Bill Schultz for donating the log cabin playhouse for our children. Now that Nick is a high school graduate, they don't need it anymore but our kids are already enjoying it.

To: All those who participated in the Spaghetti Dinner
Dear Friends,

Thank you to everyone who participated in Joey's Spaghetti Dinner Fundraiser. Matt and I feel honored and blessed that each of you would walk this journey with us, bearing some of the burden in both prayer and deed.

The Lord's hand has been evidenced so many times throughout the last several months and we continue to trust in His promises and rest in the great mercy and grace He has extended to us during this time of need. It is only by God's mercy that Joey is returning to his former "little boy ways," bringing a smile to all who hear of the miraculous wonder that has occurred in his body.

Thank you for remaining constant in prayer for our entire family and for bringing hope to Joey's journey. May God bless you for your faithful and generous spirits.
love, Maggie Aquaro

When the music stopped

For those who are unaware, at a military theater, the National Anthem is played before every movie.

I recently attended a showing of 'Superman 3,' here at LSA Anaconda. We have a large auditorium we use for movies, as well as memorial services and other large gatherings. As is the custom back in the States, we stood and snapped to attention when the National Anthem began before the main feature. All was going as planned until about three-quarters of the way through The National Anthem the music stopped.

Now, what would happen if this occurred with 1,000 18-22 year-olds back in the States? I imagine there would be hoots, catcalls, laughter, a few rude comments; and everyone would sit down and call for a movie. Of course, that is, if they had stood for the National Anthem in the first place.

Here, the 1,000 Soldiers continued to stand at attention, eyes fixed forward. The music started again. The Soldiers continued to quietly stand at attention. And again, at the same point, the music stopped. What would you expect to happen? Even here I would imagine laughter, as everyone finally sat down and expected the movie to start.

But here, you could have heard a pin drop. Every Soldier continued to stand at attention. Suddenly there was a lone voice, then a dozen, and quickly the room was filled with the voices of a thousand soldiers, finishing where the recording left off: 'And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air, gave proof through the night that our flag was still there. Oh, say does that Star Spangled Banner yet wave, o'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.'

It was the most inspiring moment I have had here in Iraq. I wanted you to know what kind of Soldiers are serving you here. Remember them as they fight for you!

Pass this along as a reminder to others to be ever in prayer for all our soldiers serving us here at home and abroad. For many have already paid the ultimate price.
