May's Acts 1:8 Offering to be taken on the 4th Sunday of the Month will be used to purchase VBS Music CD's for our kids. The lessons learned in VBS live on in children's minds everytime they listen and sing along with the VBS music. Help us make sure every family has their own copy of the music by giving to Acts 1:8 this month.

Irresistable Evangelism

Steve Sjogren, Dave Ping, Doug Pollock

As evangelistic results in the United States and throughout the Western world reach all-time lows, perhaps it's time to ask whether the problem is the message or the messengers.

If the most popular books on the shelves of your local bookstores are any indication, people are very interested in spirituality. On the Internet, spiritual sites receive hits more frequently than sites with any other nonpornographic subject matter. So how can we become (and train others to become) messengers who not only get heard but see the fruit and positive results that God desires?

The messages that are likely to get through to a person's heart are the messages addressed to that person's individual needs. People have four layers of needs, and we frequently need to work through those layers in turn.

- 1) Physical needs. We start by meeting physical needs creatively and consistently. To do so, we must learn the skill of active kindness.
- 2) Emotional/Relational needs. To better meet people's emotional and relational needs, we must brush up on active listening skills.
- 3) Directional needs. To help people in the big directional questions of their lives, we need the skill of active wondering. This usually takes the form of asking questions that provoke people to think deeply about things and discover new insights—often giving you clues to the best way to approach them in layer 4.
- 4) Spiritual needs. Once we've worked through the first three layers, people will subconsciously grant us the right (and credibility) to practice the final skill, active sharing.

Our lives, as ordinary and mundane as they may seem, can have a wonderful and eternal influence on the lives of others!

Remember that “to the world we are just one person but to one person, we may be the world”.

Wash Day

Monday Wash Day

Lord, help me wash away all my selfishness and
Vanity, so I may serve you with perfect humility
Through the week ahead.

Tuesday Ironing Day

Dear Lord, help me iron out all the wrinkles
Of prejudice I have collected through the years
So that I may see the beauty in others.

Wednesday Mending Day

O God, help me mend my ways so I will not
Set a bad example for others.

Thursday Cleaning Day

Lord Jesus, help me to dust out all the many faults
I have been hiding in the secret corners of my heart.

Friday Shopping Day

O God, give me the grace to shop wisely
so I may purchase eternal happiness for myself and all others
In need of love.

Saturday Cooking Day

Help me, my Savior, to brew a big kettle of brotherly
Love and serve it with clean, sweet bread of human kindness.

Sunday The Lord's Day

O God, I have prepared my house for you. Please Come into my heart so I may spend the day and the Rest of my life in your presence.
