Thank You!! Thank You!!

Trudy Williams extends her thanks to all those who supported her Relay for Life team over the past year. Thank you for baked goods, donations, & help with other fund raisers. A special thanks to those who walked laps last Saturday on a rainy day. Her team, Breast Friends raised over $2400. The Chartiers Houston Relay raised $208,000 over all.

Children's Church Needs Your Help

Consider signing up to help with a Children's Church
Unit this summer. Units are only 4 or 5 weeks long.
There is very little preparation time. Summer units will begin on June 1st. We are looking for volunteers for June, July, or August. Pray about this opportunity. See Kerri Wonsettler or call the church office to volunteer or for more information.

CaringBridge Update

Wednesday, May 21st 8:54 p.m.

The waiting is finally over... Joey's scans are clean- crystal clear- and he is ready to begin 3F8 on Tuesday. We are a bit surprised, and completely overwhelmed by the amazing news. I received a call from the team at Sloan this evening and was told that we need to be in New York on Tuesday morning to begin a month long treatment plan that involves the 3F8 antibody therapy and intensive radiation, as well as the start of Accutane. It seems the drugs; in combination with radiation have good success at keeping the cancer from recurring. The good news has left us scrambling a bit, trying to decide what would be the best way of getting through the next month in NY- We had anticipated a 6th round of chemo, which would have taken us to mid-June when Olivia would be finished with school... since that is not the case we are trying to figure out plans, and even now in the midst of the confusion and anxiousness I know that the Lord has hand in all of this situation and that it will work out. We just have to trust Him.

Please keep us in your prayers as we begin this next phase of Joey's treatment. We know that nothing short of a miracle has occurred in Joey- considering how far he has come since receiving the diagnosis in December leaves me in awe of the power that is unharnessed when faithful people pray. We are hopeful that 3F8 will be successful at keeping the cancer from returning and that we will be telling the story of Joey's amazing recovery for many years to come... Thanks for being a part of this journey... Maggie Praise God for the privilege Glenn Street Church has been granted to be a part of the prayer team for Joey and his family.

Continue to remember them in prayer as Joey goes through this next phase of treatment. Also watch next week's Gazette for details on a Spaghetti Dinner Fundraiser on Saturday, June 28th in our Fellowship Hall. Tickets will be available next Sunday. See Janet Mazza or Valerie Zenner if you would like to help with this fundraiser.
